

ERASMUSDAYS LOCAL EVENTS

The Erasmus days were held in the days from 15 to 17 October and joined all countries participating in the Erasmus program.

This was a moment of exchange, meeting, welcoming, training to present the results of their projects and the aspects of innovation, openness, culture, inclusion. An opportunity to make known the SIMCAS project and disseminate the results of the first activities carried out. In addition to the international seminar "Making integration through sport", local events were organized by the project partners for different kind of stakeholders.

DENMARK: "SOCIAL INTEGRATION WORKSHOP"

The event was held on October 15 where Girl Power presented their work in the field and the results of the SIMCAS social approach of inclusion through sport. An on-the-spot football training was also played

The commitment of Girl power projects is to encourage, promote intercultural mediation to increase social inclusion, create a sense of community, against discrimination and reduce barriers, especially for women.

SPAIN: SOCIAL INCLUSION AND SPORTS

The Sport Council of Pla de l'Estany (CEPE) organized an online seminar with representatives of local governments, the municipality of Banyoles, sports clubs and physical education teachers, to present the intellectual results of the SIMCAs project and the actions that have been implemented so far.

Through a round table, the results were discussed to gather their feedback and knowledge on the topic, thus strengthening new and existing networks, as well as depicting the future of social inclusion and sport in the local context.

The actors involved were: The Municipality of Banyoles, the Welfare Department of the Regional Council of Pla de l'Estany, Club Natació Banyoles, Football Club Banyoles, Athletic Club Banyoles, the physical education teacher in a local elementary school, the social worker in a local high school and a social integrator from a complex neighborhood in Banyoles.

ITALY: "SPORT BEYOND BORDERS"

The US Acli has promoted a workshop directed to US Acli executives and sports operators working in prisons, characterized by a high presence of immigrants. A meeting to deepen the characteristics of the prison context and the successful elements of a sports program of social inclusion for prisoners from

- data from SIMCAS research;
- from the sports paths made by US Acli inside the penitentiary institutes.

The first two outputs of the SIMCAS project were presented with a focus on the role of sport in the processes of integration and social reintegration of prisoners.

The meeting was useful to highlight the strategic role of sports educators in prison and to collect the training needs of sports operators working in this field.
