

GIRL POWER MULTIPLIER SPORT EVENT

Copenhagen, 17th November – 18th
November 2022

Girl Power developed SIMCAS sports events in two days.

On 17/11/2022, a multi-coloured SIMCAS event was organised in the form of a training course for coaches, volunteers, and youth leaders.

SIMCAS methodological approach toolkit and project findings were presented to the participants.

New methods to promote inclusion and integration through sport were introduced and discussed with the participants.

The event took place in collaboration with Football clubs, street football orgs, and sports NGO's.

40 Participants joined the events and actively engaged in sessions.

On the first day of the event, the focus was a lot on theoretical approaches and findings, and on the second day was on 18/11/2022.

The practical approach and pilot test were introduced to the participants.

Some games and ideas for new creative activities were also discussed and developed.

Participants were coaches, volunteers, and some refugees who were interested in coaching. The partners showed interest to collaborate with Girl Power in the future to encourage the participation of refugee women in sports activities.
